College Combines Past, Present, Future With Grand Opening of $5 Million Renovated Library April 2

In connection with the 55th anniversary of the creation of Jefferson College by Jefferson County voters in 1963, the College will host a public grand opening for the renovated Library on Monday, April 2, from 3-5 p.m. on the Hillsboro campus.

Everyone is welcome to attend. Advance reservations are not necessary.

The event will include a short dedication ceremony at 3 p.m. followed by tours of the new facility, interactive demonstrations, historical and construction document displays, information regarding the Jefferson County 200th Bicentennial Celebration, music, refreshments, and giveaways.

The $5 million renovation, which began in late 2016, has been possible thanks to a $1.7 million appropriation by the Missouri legislature for capital projects and an ongoing $1.5 million campaign by the Jefferson College Foundation.

“The significance of the Library to campus and the surrounding community cannot be overstated,” said Jefferson College President Dr. Raymond Cummiskey. “Campus and community input during the planning and visioning process helped define the renovated space. These improved spaces will enhance the College’s ability to deliver better experiences for students and visitors alike, while providing for a more energy-efficient building, which will reduce the cost of maintenance and extend its life.”

The 50-year old Library and its services were reimagined in a fresh, contemporary effort to improve user experiences and educational resources as the informational, study/research, and community hub of the Hillsboro campus. Since its construction in 1967 as one of the first buildings on the Hillsboro campus, technology and the utilization needs of Library services and spaces have advanced significantly. The facility had not had any major construction or comprehensive renovation since it was built.

In connection with Jefferson College’s 55th anniversary, the College will host a public grand opening for the $5 million newly renovated Library on Monday, April 2, from 3-5 p.m. on the Hillsboro campus. Everyone is welcome to attend. The event will include activities for all ages.

New and improved features of the Library include:

- Increased access to technology
- More quiet and collaborative spaces
- Efficient, safe, sustainable, and accessible construction and furnishings
- Expanded Jefferson County History Center
- Designated space for early childhood education collection
- Larger bibliographic instruction room
- Additional electrical outlets and device stations

A rectangular design for the West entrance was selected, blending the design of the entrance on the East and allowing the College to look to the future while embracing the past. Dynamic features of the interior include bright finishes and abundant natural light, a completely new Library and Testing Center layout, relocation of the Jefferson County History Center, technology provisions, additional quiet and collaborative spaces, more seating options, more outlets for personal digital devices, more desktop computers, and triple the number of study rooms.

Beyond modernizing the Library's study and collaborative spaces and enhancing essential services for students, faculty, staff, and the community, the project included replacement of the HVAC system and windows which were original to the building from the 1960s.

College President Cummiskey Announces Retirement in 2020

After leading Jefferson College since 2009 as president, Dr. Raymond Cummiskey has announced that he will retire at the completion of his existing contract on June 30, 2020. He is the seventh president in the 55-year history of the institution and will be the second longest serving president in the College's history.

The announcement of Cummiskey's retirement provides the Board with ample time to establish a succession plan for a coordinated leadership transition. To begin the presidential search process for his successor, the Board will establish criteria for the position, set a timeline, and discuss tentative composition of the screening committee.

Under his leadership, the College has sustained a high quality learning environment and expanded educational sites and facilities in Imperial and Arnold, added programs in high demand areas such as health care and online technology, established a Campus Police Department and implemented numerous campus safety initiatives, brought facilities and infrastructure up to date, and created a dynamic planning process to guide the College for many years to come. The College has also launched economic development and workforce training initiatives that have deepened relationships and partnerships with local, county, St. Louis and regional Chambers of Commerce, elected officials, and community-serving organizations.

Currently, the College is in the final stages of a $5 million renovation to the Hillsboro campus Library that will significantly improve user experiences and educational resources. Next spring, the institution will undergo its 10-year re-accreditation evaluation by the Higher Learning Commission.

"For the past nine years, Dr. Cummiskey has faithfully served Jefferson College and the people of Jefferson County," said Board of Trustees President Steve Meinberg. "He has been a great friend to many in our community and is a quality servant. We are grateful for his leadership and contributions, and his role in the College's history will not be forgotten. The entire Board of Trustees respects his decision and wishes him and his family the best in retirement."

"It has been a tremendous honor and privilege to serve as president," said Cummiskey. "I owe a huge debt of gratitude to everyone who has worked and sacrificed to make Jefferson College so successful and respected. Certainly any successes during my time as president are due to a tremendous team, engaged faculty and a supportive Board. I am grateful for the opportunity to have served as president of an institution that is truly the 'Jewel of the County!'"

In addition to being a well-respected voice for statewide and national higher education issues, Cummiskey has held leadership roles in numerous local and regional economic, workforce, community development, and civic groups.

College to Host General and Healthcare Job Fairs April 4 and 5

As a public service, the Jefferson College Employment Services office will host two community-wide job fairs in April on the Hillsboro campus in an effort to provide career information and employment related resources in a variety of occupational areas.

A General Job Fair will be held on Wednesday, April 4, from 2 -5 p.m. in the Field House with over 40 participating employers. A Healthcare Job Fair will be held on Thursday, April 5, from 1:30-5:30 p.m. in the CTE Building (Rooms 100, 102 and 114) with over 25 area employers.

The latest list of employers and positions available is listed online at jeffco.edu/employmentservices. There is no cost to participate for job seekers or employers at either event. Job seekers should dress professionally in appropriate interview attire and bring resumes to distribute.

The annual events offer job seekers an opportunity to learn about current employment vacancies and receive information about a variety of career fields. For additional information about the job fairs or career preparation, contact Employment Services at (636) 481-3223.

Friday Speaker Series April 6 - Living Well in the Golden Years: Strategies and Resources

The Jefferson College Friday Speaker Series will continue on April 6 with a presentation by Assistant Sociology Professor and licensed clinical social worker Suzie Welch titled “Living Well in the Golden Years: Strategies and Resources.”

Welch will share information, along with personal and professional experiences addressing a variety of topics related to aging in today’s society. Her presentation will include strategies and resources for successfully navigating topics like relationships, health, the sandwich generation, downsizing, coping with illness/ caregiving, and technology.

Lunch begins at 11:45 a.m. followed by the presentation, which concludes by 1 p.m., in the Viking Room of the Student Center on the Hillsboro campus. Admission is $7 per person and includes a buffet lunch with beverages and dessert. Because space is limited, advance reservations are highly recommended.

To make reservations or receive additional information, contact Lisa Vinyard at (636) 481-3101 or email lvinyard@jeffco.edu.

Music Faculty to Present Recital April 8

Faculty members of the Music Department will present a recital on Sunday, April 8, at 7 p.m. in the Fine Arts Theatre on the Hillsboro campus. Admission is free and the program is suitable for all.

Performing faculty will include:

Cathy Boemler, piano; Keith Boyer, voice; Peter Hensel, horn; Dawn Evans, bassoon; Travis Lewis, guitar; Elke Overton, saxophone; Joe Pastor, percussion; Joel Vanderheyden, saxophone; and Mary Weber, trumpet.

To view photos and information about participating faculty members, visit www.jeffco.edu/music and click on “Meet the Faculty.” The Music Department has an excellent track record in preparing musicians for study at four-year colleges and universities and respected music conservatories across the country. The College offers a variety of performance group and solo opportunities for the music major and non-major student as well as community members such as concert band, choirs and jazz ensembles.

“Careers in Teacher Education” Information Fair April 10

As a way to provide ongoing information about various careers paths, workforce skills training, and employment possibilities, Jefferson College will host a “Careers in Teacher Education” information fair on Tuesday, April 10, from 7-8 p.m. in Room 323 at Jefferson College Arnold, located at 1687 Missouri State Road.

The free event is open to everyone, especially high school students/parents, current college students, and community members. Pre-registration is not required.

Jefferson College alumni who are now elementary and secondary education teachers will be present to talk with attendees, along with representatives from the college’s Student Services division who will provide information regarding enrollment and transferring to other institutions. Representatives from Missouri Baptist University, the University of Missouri–St. Louis and other professionals will also be available to talk about educational opportunities.

Registration is now underway at Jefferson College for summer and fall with a variety of classes that are applicable toward an Associate of Arts in Teaching degree. The Bureau of Labor and Statistics predicts that employment for most teaching positions will increase up to 22 percent through 2022.

For more information about the “Careers in Teacher Education” information fair, call Teacher Education Professor Dr. Ken Boning at (636) 481-3344 or e-mail kboning@jeffco.edu.

Ripple of Hope: To Seek a Newer World Programs April 11-12 Focus on RFK and MLK Relevance

In connection with the 50th anniversary of the deaths of Robert F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King Jr., guest speaker Adam Walinsky, RFK aide and speechwriter, will visit Jefferson College to discuss the legacies and relevance of both leaders and their shared visions for our nation during the fourth annual Ripple of Hope event April 11-12.

Ripple of Hope is being sponsored by the Cultural Events and Outreach Committee in an effort to bring peace through nonviolence to our region, community and personal lives.

With first-hand insight, Walinsky will guide community discussions at both the Arnold and Hillsboro locations. Each event will allow the opportunity for attendees to meet Walinsky.

50 years ago, in the midst of war, domestic crisis, and a Presidential election, the United States lost within two months two of the nation's most dynamic and promising leaders, when first, Martin Luther King Jr., and then, Robert F. Kennedy, were assassinated. Kennedy had emerged as the election favorite, building a coalition that cut across all lines of race, age, opinion and social and economic class. He proposed a dramatic project of American renewal, grounded on personal action, peace, love and the wisdom born from tragedy, in his 1968 Presidential campaign.

King became the most visible spokesperson and leader in the Civil Rights Movement, widely known for his "I Have a Dream" speech. The day that Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated in Memphis, Kennedy absorbed the news of the killing and responded with courage, compassion and responsibility in his now infamous "Ripple of Hope" speech.

The programs are open to the public. They are some of the many educational events the College hosts to foster a great appreciation of cultural diversity in our community.

Jefferson County Shakespeare Project

“A Midsummer’s Night Dream” April 14 & 16

Jefferson College’s PACE (Performing Arts and Cultural Enrichment) event series will continue with the presentation of “A Midsummer’s Night Dream” in connection with the Jefferson County Shakespeare Project on April 14 and 16, produced by Communication and Theatre Professor Dr. Rebecca Ellison.

The Jefferson County Shakespeare Project involves area high school students and teachers in a collaborative setting to produce a Shakespeare work. Participating students are mentored by an acting coach and dramaturg (interpretation specialist) to learn about Shakespeare and his works, while also having the experience of interacting with students from other schools. In addition to Jefferson College, there are three high schools involved: Herculaneum High School, Northwest High School, and Windsor High School.

A Midsummer Night’s Dream is one of William Shakespeare’s most popular works for the stage and is widely performed across the world. It is a comedy that portrays events surrounding the marriage celebration of Theseus, the Duke of Athens, to Hippolyta, the former queen of the Amazons. The play consists of four interconnecting plots where the central characters are controlled and manipulated by the fairies who inhabit the forest.

Shows are Saturday, April 14, at 6 p.m. and Monday, April 16, at 10 a.m. in the Fine Arts Theatre on the Hillsboro campus.

Tickets are $2 and can be reserved by calling Dr. Rebecca Ellison at (636) 481-3367 or by emailing rellison@jeffco.edu with date of performance, type and amount of ticket(s) to reserve. Reserved tickets must be picked up at least 15 minutes prior to show time or they will be sold to other patrons. Tickets will also be sold at the door depending on availability.

To view a full list of upcoming PACE performances, visit the Jefferson College website at jeffco.edu/pace.

Tickets Still Available for Jefferson College Foundation Jazz & Jeans April 14

Get your tickets now for a fun-filled evening of jazz and scrumptious food, all while helping support deserving students. To raise funds to support scholarships, emergency student loans, textbooks, and other projects for disadvantaged Jefferson College students, the Jefferson College Foundation and Gold level ($5,000) sponsors Dobbs Tire and Auto and Enterprise Bank and Trust will present the annual Jazz & Jeans Dinner, Music and Auction on Saturday, April 14, in the Field House on the Hillsboro campus.

The master of ceremonies for the evening will be Dan Gray from Fox 2 and News 11 with special guest Bob Bennett, Artistic/Operations Director of Jazz St. Louis.

Guests are invited to wear jeans and enjoy a relaxed evening. The event will begin with a social hour (open bar) and silent/mobile auction at 5:30 p.m., followed by dinner, musical entertainment by the Jefferson College Jazz Band and special guests, Fund-a-Future presentation, and a special “jazz club” performance by local professionals and alumni. As part of the auction, many area businesses and individuals, along with College faculty/staff groups and departments, have donated a variety of creatively themed baskets and items.

Jazz & Jeans tickets are available for $75 per person (tables of 10/$750) and must be purchased in advance at jeffco.edu/foundation. The reservation deadline is April 6. For more information about tickets, contact info@mydivineevents.com or call (314) 669-5933.

The Jefferson College Foundation is a separately incorporated 501 (c) (3) nonprofit organization whose mission is to increase resources, to raise funds and to cultivate friends and partnerships to support Jefferson College and its mission.
