

AMERICAN SOLAR ECLIPSE

Jefferson College

8.21.17

UNFORGETTABLE SOLAR ECLIPSE EXPERIENCE

Jefferson College's sensational Performing Arts and Cultural Enrichment (PACE) Series for 2017-18 will kick off with a rare solar eclipse and viewing event on Monday, August 21, 2017.

A phenomenal natural wonder will take place – a total eclipse of the sun, which turns daytime into night while the sun's corona still blazes in the sky. It's likely to be the most-viewed ever, so the time to start planning where you will be on that day is now.

Don't miss an incredible sight you'll remember your whole life...at Jefferson College!

NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Welcome to the Jefferson College Theatre Department's production of Disney's The Little Mermaid. This entire production has been a labor of love for the cast, crew, and directors.

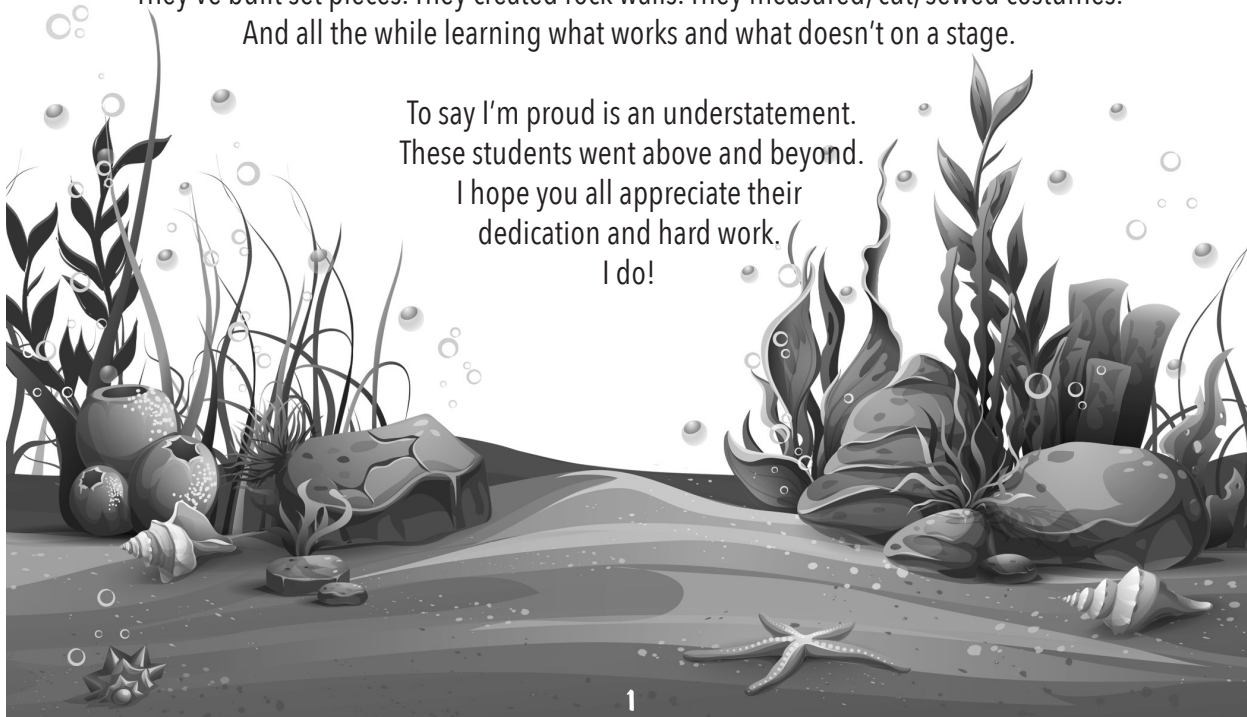

I originally chose this production because of my love for the film. So many great songs and amazing characters and stunning locales...I just had to direct it! That has not changed for me. However, the production became so much more for me as a teacher. I taught for the first time this past spring semester a course called Theatre Practicum. I decided I would offer study in theatrical design for students. I taught scenic and costume design to 7 students:

Whitney Wolcott, Laila Alvarado, Melissa Brouk, Emma Van Doren, Taylor Mace, Emilie Heitmann, and Madison Evans.

We decided to challenge ourselves by designing for The Little Mermaid.

What an experience! These students came to me with designs far exceeding what I thought possible. Such talent! Such creativity! And then I asked them to construct some of the things they had designed. Did they shy away from the task? Absolutely not! They shined! They've built set pieces. They created rock walls. They measured, cut, sewed costumes. And all the while learning what works and what doesn't on a stage.

To say I'm proud is an understatement. These students went above and beyond. I hope you all appreciate their dedication and hard work. I do!
