Child Development Center Renovation Open House Sept. 12 – Come See How We Have Grown

In celebration of the recent completion of significant renovations to the Jefferson College Child Development Center on the Hillsboro campus, the College will host a community-wide open house on Thursday, September 12, from 9:30-noon. Advance reservations are not necessary.

Guided tours and information will be provided by CDC staff, giving attendees the opportunity to view the facility's new entryway, along with classrooms, reconfigured offices, a new kitchen, and redesigned teacher workstations.

The accredited and state licensed Child Development Center provides a comprehensive, high quality child development program for preschool and school age children, ages 2-12. The program is open to children of students, faculty, staff, and the community.

The Center also serves as a laboratory setting for Area Technical School and College students enrolled in early childhood education coursework, or other curricula related to the care and education of young children. It is the program's intent to instruct and model theoretical knowledge of learning and human behavior, attitudes that foster learning, knowledge of developmentally appropriate practice, and a repertoire of teaching strategies that help children develop to their maximum potential.

Exciting, challenging, meaningful and fun activities are planned for children each day that help to build a strong foundation for a lifetime of learning.

Jefferson College has provided child care on the Hillsboro campus since 1974. In order to better meet the needs of the students, faculty and staff, a stand-alone facility (designed by Architectural Drafting students and built by Building Trades students) was completed in 1983. The increase in capacity allowed for the enrollment of children from the community. In 1999, an additional classroom, funded by the Missouri Preschool Project, was included in the Area Technical School (ATS) building.

From the inception of the Early Childhood Associate of Applied Science Degree and the ATS Early Childhood programs, the Child Development Center has been utilized extensively as a model observation, lab, and practicum site. Students from other disciplines, such as the allied health programs and social sciences, utilize the Center for activities as well.

The program has consistently followed the research on how young children learn best. Constructivism and developmentally appropriate practice remain strong components of the program that are in turn modeled to the adult learner. The goal is for this “best practice” to continue out in the community as students gain employment in other child care programs or school districts.

For enrollment information, call (636) 481-3299 or 481-3298 or visit the Child Development Center website at www.jeffco.edu/current-students/resources/child-development-center.

Law Enforcement Academy POST Graduates Prepared to Meet Needs of Our Community

After completing a comprehensive curriculum filled with numerous tactical exercises using the latest instructional technology, a class of 14 students (029 POST Peace Officer Standards and Training Class) recently graduated from the Jefferson College Law Enforcement Academy in Imperial, helping to fill the ongoing need for qualified officers in Missouri.

The 029 class also achieved a 100 percent completion pass rate on the POST (Peace Officer Standards and Training) license exam, continuing the lengthy streak of graduating classes from Jefferson College with a 100 percent pass rate for the POST Class A license.

The JCLEA offers three options for students seeking a Missouri Department of Public Safety POST Class A License and is the only academy in the state that incorporates the curriculum for an Associate of Applied Science Degree in Criminal Justice in two of its three programs as a way to distinguish graduates when they enter the job market. The third program, a POST curriculum only option, offers a Certificate in Criminal Justice and is limited to applicants who already have a two or four-year degree.

The mission of the Law Enforcement Academy is to provide quality training for new recruits and veteran officers. Training is designed to provide individuals and agencies with the information and skills needed to meet the needs of our community, to develop skills to remain current in information and technology, and to prepare law enforcement officers to successfully respond to the challenges of a diverse society.

For more information about the Law Enforcement Academy and program application deadlines, call (636) 481-3425 or visit www.jeffco.edu/jclea.

College to Host Dual Credit/Dual Enrollment Parent Information Night Sept 11

Parents of high school-age students who want to learn more about dual credit/dual enrollment high school programs through Jefferson College are invited to attend Parent Information Night on Wednesday, September 11, at 6 p.m. in the Student Center Viking Room on the Hillsboro campus (1000 Viking Drive).

The event is free as a resource to all area parents with no cost to attend.

Jefferson College representatives will share information about:

- ✓ Understanding dual credit, dual enrollment, and AP (advanced placement) courses
- ✓ Benefits of completing an Associate of Arts (AA) degree
- ✓ Potential financial aid implications after high school
- ✓ Resources available to dual high school students
- ✓ The Missouri CORE 42 transfer guarantee
- ✓ Registration and withdrawal deadlines
- ✓ A+ and scholarship opportunities

“Every parent I know in our community wants to receive relevant, accurate information in order to make impactful decisions about their son’s or daughter’s future,” said Marketing and Public Relations Director Roger Barrentine. “The information you’ll get during Parent Night will open the doors to the excellent academic opportunities that exist at Jefferson College.”

For more information about Parent Information Night, contact Jefferson College Enrollment Services Specialist Kaysie Dudley at (636) 481-3237 or email kdudley@jeffco.edu.

For questions or additional information about Star Parties, contact Jefferson College Physical Science Instructor Maryanne Anglionto at 636-481-3318 or email manglion@jeffco.edu.

OBSERVATORY LOCATION

The observatory site is located north of the Jefferson College Hillsboro campus (on Farm Rd.) near the Softball Field and shares a paved parking lot, making the site especially attractive to astronomers from across the region due to its location outside the immediate St. Louis area and the associated light band.

DIRECTIONS

From St. Louis, travel South on Highway 21 to the Jefferson College/Hayden Road exit. Turn right onto Hayden Road, then left onto Jefferson College Drive. Farm Road will be approx. 1/4 mile on the right.

Spend $20 for a Chance to Win $1,000 Guaranteed

Are you feeling lucky? Enter now for a chance to win a $1,000 guaranteed cash payout at the 2019 Viking Classic Golf Tournament on Monday, September 16, at Fox Run Golf Club. You do not have to be present to win and there is no limit on the number of tickets an individual is allowed to purchase, but you must be at least 18 years old to enter.

What Is a Golf Ball Drop Contest?

One ticket for each numbered golf ball is being sold for $20 each. Only the numbered golf balls sold between now and 10:30 a.m. on the day of the tournament will be placed into a bucket truck donated by Sunbelt Rentals and dumped onto the green above an assigned hole on the golf course at 10:50 a.m. at the tournament. The person holding the ticket for the numbered golf ball that enters the hole first or rests closest to the hole wins the $1,000 cash prize!

Purchase Golf Ball Drop tickets online using a credit card or visit the Jefferson College Foundation office in the Administration Building - Room 129 during normal business hours. Campus and online ticket sales will end at noon on Friday, September 13, and at 10:30 a.m. at the tournament. Purchasers of online tickets will be notified of their assigned golf ball number(s) via email and the information will be recorded on the purchasing log.

The winner will be notified immediately following the ball drop via the phone number printed on the contest ticket. Click here for contest rules.

Thank you for supporting the 32nd annual Jefferson College Foundation Viking Classic Golf Tournament. Good luck!
