STUDENT CONSENT FOR INFORMATION RELEASE

By law, Jefferson College officials are not permitted to give any information to any person, including a student's parents/spouse, about the student's 1) academic progress, including but not limited to grades, attendance, academic standing; 2) payment or financial status; and 3) student behavior and/or code of conduct records. However, it is often the student's wish that information be released to his/her parents/spouse or other designated individuals, who may seek information from the College.

Please complete the space below by listing the names of individuals to whom we may release information. Check all boxes for the types of information to which they may have access.

- ❖ RELEASE OF INFORMATION TO THIRD PARTIES: I wish to make information about my academic progress, financial status, and student behavior/code of conduct available to my parents/spouse or other parties.
